Kenny Luck

multiply (verb): to make more of or become greater; progressive growth in size, amount, or intensity.

“The servant given one thousand said, ‘Master, I know you have high standards and hate careless ways, that you demand the best and make no allowances for error. I was afraid I might disappoint you, so I found a good hiding place and secured your money. Here it is, safe and sound down to the last cent.’ The master was furious. ‘That’s a terrible way to live! It’s criminal to live cautiously like that! If you knew I was after the best, why did you do less than the least?’ Matthew 25:24-27 MSG

“All the believers were together and had everything in common.... And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.” Acts 2:44, 47 NIV

For I bear witness that according to their ability, yes, and beyond their ability, they were freely willing, imploring us with much urgency that we would receive the gift and the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.” 2 Corinthians 8:1-4

You should remember the words of the Lord Jesus: “It is more blessed to give than to receive.”
