Session Two: As I Walk Along The Road

Living Out our Faith at Work

Dusty Davis

“The Lord God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to work it and take care of it.” - Genesis 2:15

Work is not the _____, work is a _____.

“For we are God’s handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.” - Ephesians 2:10

Ask yourself: What _____ you? What _____ you? What _____ you?

“Whatever your hands finds to do, do it with all your might.” - Ecclesiastes 9:10

We can’t _____ Jesus, where Jesus isn’t _____.

Your truest identity: You are the _____ of a _____.

We work as _____, according to His _____, for His _____.

At work, just like in life our true identity provides _____, creates _____, fosters _____ and even _____.

The world needs to encounter Jesus Christ _____ it encounters His sons, _____ it encounters His sons.

“Live no longer as the Gentiles do, for they are hopelessly confused. Their minds are full of darkness; they wander far from the life God gives because they have closed their minds and hardened their hearts against him. They have no sense of shame. They live for lustful pleasures and eagerly practice every kind of impurity.” - Ephesians 4:17-19

Your goal is to simply and genuinely put Christ on display, but what you _____, not simply by what you _____.

“Imitating God, therefore, in everything you do, because you are His dear children.” - Ephesians 5:1

Company: COM-PANIS meaning “bread fellow”. A companis was a group of people who would gather together to trade, tell stories and eat together. It was a beautiful community.

In the workplace, God’s man is a _____ and not a _____.

Thermostats are proactive, thermometers are reactive. A thermostat sets the tone and temperature, a thermometer merely reflects what is going on.

You cannot _____ into places you have not yet been _____.

“A good man brings forth good things from the good stored up within him” - Matthew 12:35

“Those who love their life in this world will lose it. Those who care nothing for their life in this world will keep it for eternity.” - John 12:25
